

Metropolitan Edison Co. Building New Substation For Local District

A NEW substation along the Minisink Hills Highway out of the high water area is being constructed by Metropolitan Edison Co. to furnish more power to the Stroudsburg area, it was announced yesterday by Theodore R. Henning, manager of the utility's Stroudsburg District.

Construction of the substation is the second major step MECO has taken in the past two months to strengthen its power supply in the area. It recently completed construction of a new feeder line from Delaware Water Gap into Stroudsburg.

"While both of these projects were part of our long range program, their start was hastened by the August flood," Henning said. "MECO has rescheduled all of its construction plans with consideration as to the new high water marks established and made changes where it appears to be advisable."

$275,000 Cost

In August, Brodheads Creek inundated a main substation and MECO linemen, braving the water, threw jumpers around it in order to restore service to East Stroudsburg within hours. This substation was repaired and back in service a week after the high water.

Immediately rush orders were given to start construction of the new substation on higher ground. Steel for this structure was delivered this week and it is expected that the substation will be completed and in service in early January. It is being built at a cost of $275,000.

Temporary service to Stroudsburg was furnished within a day by means of a line over Foxtown Hill. Since that time MECO has constructed a three-mile-long 4,800-volt line from Delaware Water Gap, where a new substation was built last spring, into Stroudsburg. This line, along with one from the new substation being built along the Minisink Hills Highway, will give MECO two alternate ways to bring power to the Stroudsburg area.

Increase Available Supply

In addition to furnishing a flood-free source of power, the new substation will increase the available supply of electricity 70 per cent as it will have a capacity of 3,750 KVA in contrast to the old 2,250 KVA substation.

Another important project under way is the rebuilding of MECO's 34,500-volt transmission lines across Brodheads Creek. These lines bring power from Belfast via Wind Gap and Saylorsburg and via North Bangor and Water Gap and are important links in the electrical network supplying the Poconos.

When MECO's new generating station (now being constructed along the Delaware River south of Portland) is completed, a 115,000-volt transmission line will be built through North Bangor where a new 115 KA to 34.5 KV substation will be constructed. This will enable power to be sent from the plant to North Bangor and taken over 34.5 KV lines directly to Stroudsburg.

"All of this construction," Henning said, "is proof that MECO believes in the economic future of the area and is doing everything possible to protect its facilities against the unusual attacks of nature while furnishing the best electric service attainable anywhere."

Bureau Predicts Cold Weather In Many Sections

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—The Weather Bureau yesterday predicted colder than normal weather during November in the Northwest quarter of the nation, the Great Lakes region and the Central Plains. More snow than usual is expected in the northern third of the country.

Following is the text of the forecast:

"The Weather Bureau's 30-day outlook for November calls for temperatures to average below season normals over the northwestern quarter of the nation as well as in the Great Lakes region and Central Plains. Above normal temperatures are predicted for the Southwest, Southeast, and northern New England. In remaining areas near normal temperatures are anticipated with large week-to-week fluctuations.

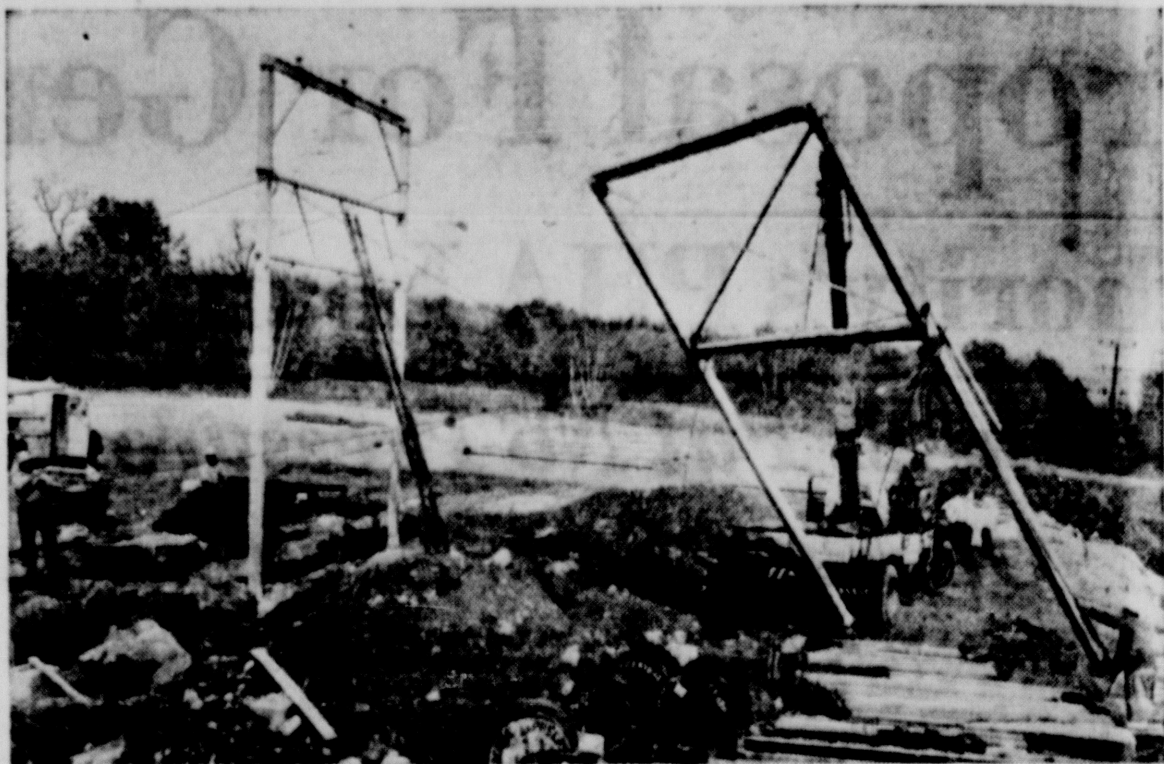

"Precipitation, some in the form of snow, is expected to exceed normal over the northern third of the country, but subnormal rainfall is predicted for the southern third. In the remaining area near normal amounts are in prospect."

Fighting Flares On China Front

TAIPEI, Formosa, Thursday, Nov. 3 (AP)—An air-sea battle and artillery duels roared along the offshore island front yesterday in a sudden flareup of China's dormant vest pocket war.

The Nationalists claimed their Thunderjets sank nine Red gunboats and other craft despite a storm of antiaircraft fire from the ships and Red guns on the mainland.

Communist ships had been reported massing in Santuao Inlet, 25 miles north of the Matsuo group where the Nationalist garrison this week was put on the alert for a possible Red invasion.

CONSTRUCTION OF A NEW substation to furnish electric power to the Stroudsburg and vicinity is being pushed by Metropolitan Edison Co. Located along the Minisink Hills-East Stroudsburg Road the new substation will replace one along Brodheads Creek which was inundated in the August flood. The new MECO sub will increase the power supply by 70 per cent. Erecting steel are: Domenic Longarini and William B. Shepherd, Phillipsburg; William Templeton Jr., Glendon; Norman V. Taiana and Stephen Hanisak, Alpha.

Judge Davis Relates Part C. D. Plays In Emergencies

THE CIVIL DEFENSE SET-UP, its many ramifications and the strategic function it is called upon to fulfill in our present mode of living were related Tuesday night to members of the Lions Club of the Stroudsburg.

The speaker, county director of the Civil Defense organization, was President Judge Fred W. Davis. Judge Davis pointed out that Civil Defense had planned and foreseen the possibility of disaster except that which plagued Monroe County—flood.

Civil Defense, the speaker went on to say, had actually only a skeleton organization at the time of the tragedy. However, the very fact that there was some central point, with trained personnel, to disseminate information and dispatch rescue teams to distressed and he was emphatic on this point, Civil Defense on a local and state level made the almost insurmountable job of immediate relief and recovery from the aftermath of the flood less critical for all concerned.

Concluding, Judge Davis lauded members of the Lions Club as well as hundreds of others of the community, for their unselfish contribution of time, labor and money during the emergency. He also suggested that those who are not now active in some phase of Civil Defense seriously consider affiliation with this organization which is set up to serve the community in time of emergency.

Dr. C. S. Flagler will be out of town Nov. 6 to 13.

SBA Closing Local Office November 30

WILLIAM H. Harman, regional director, Federal Small Business Administration, announced last night that the Stroudsburg office will be closed Wednesday, Nov. 30 because of the decreasing number of disaster loan applications.

Harman said that some 125 applications have been received by the local office to date, and these represent requests for loans amounting to $2,062,236. Of this number, 36 were from home-owners, and the remainder came from businessmen.

"For the Pennsylvania area, which includes the branch offices at Scranton and Easton," said Harman, "a total 248 applications have been received and total $4,108,958."

"It is our belief that, but for the aid of the SBA, several area businessmen would have been faced with the possibility of having to terminate their businesses," he added.

Applications Being Received

Harman further stated that applications still are being received at the local office on the second floor of the Security Trust Co. building at 2 N. Seventh St. He suggested that anyone interested in obtaining an SBA loan take advantage of the expert assistance now available locally.

After Nov. 30, applications must be referred to the regional office at 1015 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. The telephone number is Walnut 2-8770.

Nobel Prizes Won By Three U. S. Scientists

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 2 (AP)—Three American scientists today won the 1955 Nobel prizes in chemistry and physics.

Dr. Vincent du Vigneaud of Cornell University medical college will receive the $36,720 chemistry award for work on two hormones that help in childbirth and keep a check on vital organs like the kidneys.

The physics award goes jointly to Dr. Willis E. Lamb of Stanford University and Dr. Polykarp Kusch of Columbia University. They will split $36,720 for work in connection with atomic measurements. Their work corrected an error made by a Briton who previously won the Nobel prize.

The prizes, announced by the Royal Swedish Academy of Science, will be presented by King Gustaf Adolf here Dec. 10. The awards were created by the will of Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite.

Top Candidate

Dr. du Vigneaud was a front runner for the 1955 Nobel prize in medicine, awarded last month to Dr. Hugo Theorell, a Swedish authority on enzyme chemistry. Both these scientists have been among top candidates for many years. Their field of biochemistry borders between medicine and chemistry. Informants said the prize awards decided to give the 1955 chemistry award to the American because 44 years had passed since a Swede received the medicine prize.

The work that won the physics prize for Dr. Lamb, 42, and Dr. Kusch, 44, was described by the Academy as a major advance toward learning what goes on inside the atom. It enabled scientists to calculate correctly the properties of some of its component parts.

In 1947 the two scientists, after attacking the same problem from different angles, published papers proving that the energy level calculations for hydrogen atoms made by the 1933 physics winner, Dr. P. A. M. Dirac, did not agree with experimental evidence.

Party Held At School

STROUD UNION District pupils at Clearview School staged a Halloween party on Monday.

Prizes were awarded for the best costumes in several categories. All the prizes were donated by the P.T.A. at the school.

Homeroom mothers served refreshments and acted as judges in awarding costume prizes. Grades were divided so that the lower grades would not be competing against upper classes, according to Ralph Knauf, school principal.

The morning kindergarten session held its own party in the morning. The kindergarten pupils paraded through other classrooms.

$11,000 Truck Demolished; Driver Pinned In Cab, Hurt

A 28-YEAR-OLD truck driver was injured and his tractor-trailer, valued at some $11,000, was demolished early yesterday morning when it overturned on Route 209 in Bushkill.

John L. Luttell Jr., of Lancaster, was reported in good condition at Monroe County General Hospital last night with abrasions of the back and an arm injury, suffered when he was pinned in the cab of his truck following the upset.

State Police said Luttell was traveling east on Route 209 about 4:45 a.m. when he saw a barricade near a temporary bridge in Bushkill. As the driver swerved away from the barrier, the tractor-trailer turned over.

Freed By Hack Saw

Mrs. Nelson H. Albrecht, who lives nearby, heard the truck driver call for help and aroused her husband. Meanwhile, another neighbor, Herbert Brauer, heard the crash, and also investigated.

Both men found Luttell pinned against the steering wheel, with part of his body hanging upside-down outside the cab. Albrecht and Brauer reportedly used a hack saw to free the injured driver, who was then taken to the Albrecht home to await the arrival of the State Police and an ambulance.

Foggy conditions reportedly existed at the time of the mishap, which caused some $500 damage to the temporary bridge, in addition to demolishing the heavy vehicle.

The trailer is owned by Herrs Motor Lines, Quarryville, State Police reported.

The accident was investigated by Pfc. Peter A. Walsh and Pfc. Joseph Murphy.

G. I. Survives 2,300 Volts Of Electricity

FORT KNOX, Ky., Nov. 2 (AP)—It was the biggest shock of his life but Cpl. Richard Sturgell will live. He brushed a wire and was hit by 2,300 volts. Doctors are still wondering how the 21-year-old soldier managed to survive.

Sturgell, a Korean War veteran, was helping load a ditchdigger Aug. 23 when he found it necessary to lift some power lines in order to move equipment. One wire was hot.

"As I lifted the wires the one hot wire brushed against the back of my neck and the whole charge went through me three times," the soldier recalled.

"It was like being hit by a pile driver — it knocked me off the ditchdigger and held me in the air for seconds while the charges jerked through me."

Today, three ugly scars on Sturgell's neck bear witness to the accident.

Doctors said Sturgell, now convalescing at his Dayton, Ohio, home, was lucky to have been only burnt.

"Somehow the current went from his neck to his feet without hitting a vital organ," they added.

The soldier, who fell 20 feet after the accident, says "I didn't remember anything until I woke up days later in the hospital."

"I hurt then, I really hurt, but I was lucky to be able to feel anything."

Harris Claims Borough Short-Changed

Burgess Calls For More Cash From Gas Taxes

CHIEF BURGESS Hal H. Harris claimed last night that the Republican-controlled Monroe County Board of Commissioners has not given Stroudsburg its fair share of returns from the liquid fuel tax fund.

Harris brought up the matter at last night's borough council meeting and noted that the borough has run into "a stumbling block" in its streets improvements program since the Republicans took control of the county board in 1952.

From 1952-54, Harris said, the State Department of Revenue took out better than $120,000 in gas and oil taxes in Stroudsburg, and only $18,000 has been returned to the borough by the commissioners.

He contended that the gas tax reimbursements, which are to be used for street improvements, have been so small that the borough had to borrow $80,000 so that it could continue its streets program at a normal pace.

Compares Grants

Harris said that, while the borough received only $18,000 from 1952-54, it was given $22,800 in 1951 alone when the Democrats were in control of the county board.

"Every man, woman and child should know that we've been short-changed by the fellows on the commission," said Harris. "They have taken a peculiar attitude of preferential treatment . . . and should be relieved of their offices next Tuesday."

Harris contended that the law clearly states that the gas and oil tax money is to be used for street and bridge construction.

However, he claimed, the com-

Red Cross Aide Given Two Surprises

EAST STROUDSBURG residents and officials staged a "surprise" for Red Cross disaster representative John Hopkins last night. It took two forms.

First — a dinner served up at Chariton's Lodge. Second — Hopkins' wife was ushered in as the "big surprise" of the evening. Mrs. Hopkins—who had been staying at the Hopkins home in Butler, N. J. while her husband worked here to help get the area back on its feet—was brought to Monroe County yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cramer. The Cramers' sons—chiefly Clifford—made the arrangements for last night's dinner.

Aside from the reunion, Hopkins was given another surprise: a printed resolution lauding him for his outstanding work in the aftermath of the August flood emergency period. It was signed on behalf of East Stroudsburg citizens by borough officials.

Politicians Watch 21st District As Indicator Of Rise Or Fall Of Support For Gov. Leader

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 1 (AP)—The state senatorial contest in Luzerne County's 21st district was seen today as a yardstick for measuring a rise or fall in public support of Gov. Leader's state administration.

State leaders in both political parties were reported keenly interested in this aspect of the race between Peter M. Margie, Democrat, of West Pittston, and William H. Davis, Republican, of Wilkes-Barre.

Margie and Davis were chosen by their party executive committees to run for the unexpired term of State Sen. Patrick J. Toole, Bear Creek Twp., who died recently. A special election was ordered at the same time as the general election of next Tuesday, November 8.

Both candidates agree the contest will be a test of the Leader program.

"The basic campaign issue," Davis said, "is the proposed Leader income tax or wage levy. There's no question about it."

Davis is against it. He views the contest as a referendum in the district on whether or not the voters approve of the "wage" tax.

Margie sees some local issues and political situations in the senatorial district presenting some difficulties in assessing the impact of the contest outcome on the Leader administration.

The Democratic candidate said he will support a broad based tax in the final form in which it is presented to the state Senate by the Leader administration.

Margie said he understands the exact formula for such a tax is subject to possible revision in the state Assembly.

Vernon Entertains Large Crowd Of Poconos Little Leaguers

Washington Star Advises Young Players

POCONO MANOR—Mickey Vernon, first baseman for the Washington Senators, thoroughly entertained a crowd of 300 Poconos Little Leaguers, parents and fans here at Pocono Manor Inn last night as the circuit held its annual banquet.

"A youngster interested in a major league baseball career must have ability, determination and good luck," the likeable veteran of 15 and one-half years in the American League related.

Vernon defined each of his points and called on the youngsters to respect their parents, managers and adults all along the line as they attempt to further their baseball careers.

He also pointed out the great advantages of playing major league baseball, but cautioned each of the youngsters to obtain their college education first.

Vernon, who was besieged by autograph hunters before, during and after the banquet, told funny stories about various American League players, including himself. He wound up his portion of the program with a long question and answer period, during which he was attacked with queries from every angle.

Toastmaster

Dr. Frank P. Maguire, commissioner of all Pennsylvania interscholastic Athletic Association officials and a member of the National Football and Basketball Rules Committee, turned in another brilliant job as toastmaster.

Dr. Maguire, one of the best after dinner speakers in the country, told many funny stories, serious incidents and introduced the various individuals at the head table. He gave a warm welcome and introduction to Vernon, who had won a multitude of friends in the lobby of the hotel prior to the banquet.

The toastmaster introduced Frank Radler, Harry Warner and Ray Steele, three local residents who have made their mark in professional baseball.

Frank Thomas, president of the Poconos Little League through the past season, delivered a few words of welcome to the huge crowd and then presented awards to the Pocono Lions, the All-Star team, and managers of both squads.

All managers and assistant managers were introduced and those boys having played their final season of Little League baseball were presented certificates. Only boys between the ages of eight and 12 are eligible to play the game.

Officers

Gerald Possinger, president elect for next season, was introduced, as was George Manos, secretary, and Willard Webster, treasurer. The various umpires present were also asked to take a bow.

Thomas praised the mothers of the many players for the fine cooperation they displayed during the past season.

The circuit president also presented Jim Riley, sports editor of The Daily Record, with a plaque, for what he termed "cooperative spirit."

Dr. Winston Fegley, commissioner of Little League District Four, also spoke briefly.

Mrs. Fegley, Mrs. Possinger and Mrs. Riley were also introduced to the gathering.

Father Robert Gallagher, Pocono Catholic Mission, delivered the invocation and Rev. Edgar Hersh, Mt. Pocono Methodist Church, delivered the benediction.

A turkey dinner was served and dinner music was furnished by the Pocono Manor management.

Vernon and his family are scheduled to leave Pocono Manor for New York today.

Haney Glad For Bragan

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 2 (P)—Fred Haney, advised today that Bobby Bragan had been named to take his place as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, smiled and said: "I'm only glad they got him. The old man (Branch Rickey Sr.) wanted him for three years. It's too bad he didn't take him three years ago."

"Sure, I wish Bob all the luck. Same for the boys on the ball club. They worked hard as hell for me and there's no reason why they won't work for him."

Coach

Haney recently signed as coach for Charley Grimm with the Milwaukee Braves.

"I've jumped into the first division," Haney, in high humor, observed.

Haney originally took the Pittsburgh job only because the then general manager, Rickey, implored him to accept it. It is no secret that Haney was hurt at the abrupt manner in which he was released from a job he never wanted.

Haney, whose friends here prefer to say he was "pardoned" instead of fired as the Bucco pilot, has been taking things easy since returning home.

Ryff Floors DeMarco For Eight Count In Sixth Round To Win Unanimous Ring Verdict

BAITMORE, Nov. 2 (P)—Frankie Ryff, fourth-ranking lightweight, knocked down Paddy DeMarco, former champion of the division, for an eight count in the sixth round tonight and went on to win a unanimously-closed decision.

Ryff, 22, of Brooklyn, who had lost only once in 20 fights, bled from his vulnerable eyes from the fourth round on, but his right-hand flooring of DeMarco, 27, gained him the nod of two judges and the referee before 1,727 paid fans at the Coliseum and a national television audience.

Referee Eddie Leonard voted 98-92 for Ryff, Judge Bennie Goldstein 98-94 and Judge John Kelly 99-95. The Associated Press scoring card agreed with Kelly.

Ryff's right-hand sock came suddenly in the sixth to put DeMarco flat on his back. As the former lightweight champion was going down, Ryff's right elbow caught him in the face and drew blood from his nose.

DeMarco, groggy but conscious enough to look to his corner for instructions, took several one-two combination from Ryff before the bell ended the possibility of a knockout. There were no other close approaches to a knockdown in the 10-round bout.

Warriorettes Capture Fourth Field Hockey Decision, 2-1

EAST ORANGE, N. J.—East Stroudsburg State Teachers College came from behind yesterday to win its fourth field hockey decision of the season with a 2-1 nod over Panzer College. The match was played on the losing club's home field.

USGA Alarmed Over Recent Golf Tourney

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (P)—The United States Golf Assn. is investigating the amateur status of two golfers involved in a hoax in which a player used an assumed name in a tournament on which a $45,000 pool was involved.

However, no sweeping probe of the affair or of "Calcutta" pools in general is planned although the USGA is "deeply concerned" over organized gambling in golf.

"We have been investigating ever since we heard about this affair," Joe Dey, USGA executive director said today. "But it has been entirely concerned with the amateur status of the players. We can't take it on ourselves to run the affairs of the Deepdale Golf Club."

Site

The exclusive Deepdale Club was the site of the tournament in which Charles (Bud) Helmar of West Springfield, Mass., has admitted that he played under the name of Richard Vitall of Springfield. Helmar and William Roberts of Amherst, Mass., aided by liberal handicaps, easily won the tournament.

Helmar said he competed on the invitation of Roberts for a promised $100, which he never received. Roberts held a quarter interest in the ticket on the winning team, worth $4,026.73.

School Trustee Raps Grapplers

WINNIPEG, Nov. 2 (P)—A Winnipeg school trustee has asked for an investigation of television wrestling because, he says, it may be causing students to lose their sense of sportsmanship.

Trustee K. E. McCaskill, at a school board meeting yesterday, asked the schools superintendent to report on the effect TV wrestling has on "accident rates" in Winnipeg schools among physical training students.

Reasoning He said the judo chops and other "anti-social refinements" students see on TV wrestling may influence them to harm one another.

Bragan Named To Manage Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 2 (P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates picked Bobby Bragan as field manager today, and thereby started a new National League guessing game: Is Bragan a "Rickey man" or a "Brown man?"

Bragan himself, moving up from the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League, promptly paid tribute to Branch Rickey Sr., whose five-year contract as Pirate general manager ended yesterday.

But General Manager Joe L. Brown, successor to Rickey, emphatically labelled Bragan as a "Brown man" and said he will stake his record as general manager on Bragan's performance with the team.

Absent

Rickey wasn't at the news conference, and reportedly was en route to Mexico to look over some player prospects in the winter league there.

This much was clear: Bragan's name popped up in speculation about the new Pirate field manager within minutes of the announcement by Fred Haney on Sept. 25 that he had been told he would not be retained for this year.

At that time Rickey still was general manager and the imminence of his retirement had not attracted any very great attention. So the gossip that linked Bragan's name to the job was traceable to his association with Rickey over a good many of his baseball years.

Bobby, originally an infielder, switched to catching while with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1942, and was a playing manager in 72 games at Hollywood last year where his team rallied to finish third after a sorry start.

He said he doesn't intend to be a playing manager in the majors "unless the bottom drops out" of the Pirate team.

He inherits a club that finished a lively last, and looked to be definitely on the upgrade at the end of the season. Bragan hinted very strongly he'll give a lot of his Hollywood main stays another chance at the big leagues to further the Pirate youth movement.

Praise

Specifically, Bragan named outfielder Bobby DeGrecio as out-ranked only by Willie Mays and Duke Snider among present National League players, and said pitcher Bob Farber, infielders Dick Smith and Curt Roberts and outfielder Carlos Bernier were Pittsburgh prospects on the triple-A team last year.

Bragan, 37, told the news conference that he would pick his own coaches. He declared he would retain one coach, Clyde Sukeforth. "I am delighted at the opportunity presented to me," said Bragan. "Joe (Brown) and I will work together to make this a winning ball club."

Speculation as to whether or not Rickey will continue to be a deciding voice in Pittsburgh baseball operations has been a hot stove league topic here since the baseball veteran stepped down. Branch had guided St. Louis and Brooklyn to the top of the National League.

Bears Hold Firm To Rating

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2 (P)—The Chicago Bears held firmly today to their No. 1 ranking for offense in the National Football League.

In latest statistics released by NFL Commissioner Bert Bell, the Bears had gained a total of 2,221 yards — 1,156 rushing and 1,065 through the air—with the season's schedule of 12 games half completed.

In the rushing department the Bears were dominant.

Passing

Hard-luck Detroit, still trying to win its first game, vaulted into the passing leadership, taking over the No. 1 spot from Philadelphia. The Lions have gained 1,251 in the air, Philadelphia 1,192 Pittsburgh 1,072.

Cleveland, at the top of the Eastern Division, sports the best percentage of pass completions—connecting with 58.5 of the aerials their passers have thrown.

Los Angeles ranks first in punts — 45.1 yards per kick, while Cleveland is tops in pass defense having allowed only 34.5 of the 145 tosses by enemy throwers to be completed.

Cleveland, too, is first in scoring with 167 points, while Pittsburgh leads the ground defenders by holding opposition runners to an average of only 24 yards per attempt.

The hotly contested races in both divisions resume this weekend.

Key Clubbers Give Reports To Kiwanians

NATIONAL KEY Club Week was observed at the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club meeting in the Penn-Stroud Hotel yesterday afternoon. Representatives of the Stroudsburg High School unit sponsored by the Kiwanis club told of the progress for the fourth year.

Chester S. Miller was program chairman. He presented Numa J. Snyder, Kiwanis co-chairman, who introduced Alan Strassman, president of the club. Other speakers were Dan Neidorf, secretary, and John Hiller.

Strassman said the club meets on alternating Mondays at 11:45 a.m. One meeting is devoted to business followed by one when a program is presented. Next week he said the new members of the club will be welcomed and directors will be elected. The directors will be introduced two weeks later. Kiwanians were invited to attend. Strassman stated the club was working on projects planned for real service to the school system.

Projects Described

Neidorf mentioned projects of the club, acting as official hosts for visitors to the schools; being represented on the bench of visiting basketball teams to afford information desired; making citizenship awards to a representative of the 7th, 8th and 9th grades, and issuing basketball game programs.

In his remarks, Hiller dwelt on future projects for the club, including attending church services in a body; cooperating with other clubs in the school and social affairs. He also named committee chairmen and their assistants. He challenged the Kiwanis club volleyball team to a game.

Nine local members attended an inter-club meeting at Clinton, N. J., Tuesday night sponsored by the North Hunterdon club. They were J. B. Dunkelberger, J. C. Cowley, Elwood Hintze, Dr. H. C. Cryder, Dr. T. I. Metzgar, E. H. Martin, H. L. Sutton, W. A. Weber, and Walter Dreher. Lt. Gov. J. D. Cader, of Ringville, was also present representing the 17th Division. The material has been stored at the YMCA building where those in need of same can be accommodated.

Parke W. Kunkle, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers for the coming year. The election will take place at next week's meeting.

Announcement was made of the formation of volleyball league to be composed of members of Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and Jaycees. They will meet at the YMCA gymnasium Wednesdays and Thursdays from 5:30 to 7 p.m. J. Thomas Campbell leads the Kiwanis group which will be in action Thursday at 5:30. A local delegation plans to make the trip.

Reynolds In Hospital

Vernor M. Reynolds, hospitalized, was reported as resting comfortably at the Monroe County General Hospital. He has received many flowers and cards.

The club directors will meet at the Penn-Stroud Hotel next Monday at 5 p.m., when absences may be made up, the president stated.

President Hansen welcomed Kiwanian Bob Whalen, of the Wilkes-Barre club; also Elmer Fleicher, of Scranton, and C. Elwood Huffman, of Marshalls Creek, president of the East Stroudsburg Exchange Club, and member of the State Game Commission.

Hansen, speaker at the Caldwell, N. J., club last Thursday, said there were 175 in attendance, it being an inter-club meeting with the Rotary club. William P. Wells first vice president, accompanied Hansen.

Secretary McKay Sells Car Agency To Son-In-Law

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 2 (AP)—Secretary of the Interior McKay, whose automobile agency has been picked by union men since July, yesterday announced sale of the firm to his son-in-law.

Picketing continued at the plant, formerly the Douglas McKay Chevrolet Co., now to be known as the Capitol Chevrolet-Cadillac Co.

"It has changed its name, but we believe it is less than a complete change of ownership," McKay's statement that he has sold out brings a smile to our faces. We'll do some checking," said Milo Holt, AFL Machinists Union official.

The machinists have accused the firm and two other Salem car agencies of union-busting. Holt said the firms rejected wage demands some time ago, refused arbitration and finally refused to renew the former contract.

Truman Book Has Praise For Harriman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—Former President Truman gives high praise to Averell Harriman, governor of New York and prominently mentioned Democratic presidential possibility, in the first volume of his memoirs, published today.

Truman says Harriman performed "vital service" as this country's World War II ambassador to Moscow, and he relates that Harriman gave him urgent personal advice that the United States must stand firm against a postwar Soviet "barbarian invasion of Europe."

"At this point," Truman relates, "I stopped Harriman to say that I was not afraid of the Russians and that I intended to be firm. I would be fair, of course, and anyway the Russians needed us more than we needed them."

Statement Recalled

Excerpts from the Truman memoirs have been published in Life magazine and the New York Times. The complete first volume, "Year of Decisions," is published by Doubleday & Co. ($5) and contains many added details.

The portions of the book praising Harriman have unusual interest in the light of Truman's recent statements describing the New York governor as exceptionally well-qualified for the Democratic presidential nomination. Truman also has said, however, he is not backing away from Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 nominee.

A SMALL camera-carrying drone, controlled by radio, has been added to the weapons of combat aerial photography by the U. S. Army Signal Corps. The drone was developed at the Army Electronic Proving Ground, Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

Although it has a wing span of only 12 feet, the drone can fly 228 miles per hour and climb at a rate of 3,050 feet per minute. The take off is jet-assisted. However, it is propelled driven by a gasoline motor while in the air. Overall length of the drone is 12 feet.

It can take either still photographs or motion pictures from a low altitude range of several hundred feet up to heights of more than four miles in the air. By using the drone, tactical commanders can be supplied with aerial surveillance photographs in less than an hour's time.

The Signal Corps explained the drone can operate in any area because it is jettied from a launching catapult thus eliminating the need for an airfield.

No Risk To Personnel

Another distinct advantage is that the drone will operate in all kinds of weather without risk to personnel and can perform its mission regardless of whether the U. S. Army has air superiority. Also, the drone will provide aerial surveillance at less cost than many other means now used.

The proper name of the drone is the RP-71. It is a radio-controlled aerial target plane which was developed by the Army Electronic Proving Ground at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, and adopted to camera-carrying duty.

Operation of this drone is simple. The catapult is assembled and the drone prepared for flight in about five minutes. The catapult is charged, the controls checked, the engine is started, safety gadgets are removed and the drone is launched.

A control operator on the ground guides the craft on its mission and returns it to the launching area. The engine is stopped and the parachute which brings the drone to

Marines Offer Programs To College Men

CAPT. E. H. UTLEY, Marine Corps procurement officer will be at State Teachers College, East Stroudsburg, on Thursday, Nov. 10, to discuss opportunities for students to earn commissions as second lieutenants in the U.S. Marine Corps. Captain Utley will be located at Monroe Hall from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

There are two training programs which the Marine Corps offers college students. Seniors may be eligible for the officer candidate course program, and freshmen, sophomores and juniors may be eligible for the platoon leaders class program.

Neither of these programs requires specialized studies or drills during the school year. Training for members of the platoon leaders class takes place during the summer vacation. The summer training lasts for six weeks during each of two summers. During the training, members receive $140 to $180, plus their food, uniforms, medical care, and first class transportation to and from the training camp located at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va.

Reserve Commission
Enrollees in the platoon leaders program receive their commissions as second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve after they have graduated from college. Under Selective Service Law, a member of the class is deferred from induction until after the student has graduated.

Seniors who enter the officer candidate course program are ordered to active duty after graduation and become second lieutenants upon successful completion of ten weeks of officer training at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico.

Newly commissioned second lieutenants from both programs may apply for further training as pilots or ground officers.

Signs Point To Israel Receiving Arms Due To Red Refusal To Prevent Sales To Egypt

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst
IT BEGINS to appear that Israel will get arms if she really needs them to insure her security, and thereby lessen the chances of war in the Middle East which could spread to war in the world.

The hope that Russia could be persuaded to call off shipment of Czech arms to Egypt is fizzling out. Russian statements in Geneva Tuesday made it clear that shipments will continue. The Russian statement that the arms will not be used to hurt Israel is just another Russian statement.

Key Factor

The Russians have finally brought into the open, however, an important factor in the whole Middle East situation. Arming of Egypt represents counteraction against the "Northern Tier" pact between Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Pakistan and Britain, say the Russians. And this is partly true. Britain has stepped up her arms shipments to Iraq, especially.

Russia, choosing to accept this as a threat, made it a race by trying up with Cairo and trying to work herself in with the Arab countries which fought the battle Syria and Egypt, or which align themselves with Egypt, as Saudi Arabia and Lebanon.

This is a double dose of Communist disruption, heightening the trouble between Israel and Egypt as the same time it emphasizes the differences within the Arab world itself.

Israel Had Edge

One thing that the United States and Britain have kept in mind since the crisis developed is that Israel had the edge when Czech sales to Egypt were announced, and they have been waiting to see whether Egypt is actually going to develop the power necessary before any attack.

Also, they don't want to give Israel the power to implement her talk of preventive war. Such a policy in South Korea prior to June, 1950, eventually proved very expensive, but it is one with which the democracies are inherently stuck.

A controlled feeding of arms to Israel might maintain the balance while Egypt is still receiving Communist material. But it would also intensify the danger to the rest of the world if a new war developed anyway.

Before this thing simmers down, the Western powers may yet have to say what the United States once said in an effort to put a damper on Red Chinese ambitions in the Far East—that an aggressor will have to expect powerful retaliation. It just isn't in the cards for the big powers to let these small countries set off fires which lead to explosive situations in many directions.

An average of 19 million bank checks are written daily in the United States, with an average face value of $300 per check.

Teachers Course Conducted

THE REV. Edwin Schmidt, Sunday school director of the Eastern District Council of Assembly of God is conducting a teachers' training course this week at the Assembly of God Church in South Stroudsburg.

The class includes Sunday school teachers, adult members and some of the young people of the church.

The D. V. Hurst book "And He Gave Teachers" is used as a text for the classes. John S. Albert is superintendent of the school and Rev. J. Russell Cairns, pastor of the church, is participating.

Warren Harding was the first U.S. President to speak over the radio.
